KAISER DECLARES WAR ON FRANCE

SERIOUS FIGHTING

Tremendous Demonstration in Paris Upon Receipt of News Announcing Action of the Kaiser.

London, August 4.—Germany formally declared war on France today and immediately a general assault of the French position near Longwy is reported to have commenced.

Serious fighting is in progress at several other points along the Franco-German frontier.

Rioting followed the announcement of the declaration in Paris, crowds attacking the German and Austrian quarters.

With the declaration of war came a statement from the foreign office, in which it is alleged that France has been the aggressor.

The German declaration insists that France was the first to violate German territory.

It claims that while the German forces were purposely held back from the frontier, French columns destroyed the railroad bridges and trestles in the vicinity of the frontier, while French aviators flew well into German territory and dropped bombs.

The declaration recites the fact that Germany has made every effort to settle her differences without recourse to arms, but that France refused to meet her half way and has constantly "interposed obstacles to a peaceful understanding."

Paris, August 4.—News that Germany had actually declared war on France was responsible for one of the greatest patriotic demonstrations in the history of the capital.

Thousands of frantic men and women paraded the streets in military formation, waving the national colors and singing patriotic songs. A number of Germans and Austrians were attacked, but the police acted promptly and no one was seriously hurt.

Baron Von Schoen, the German Ambassador, left before midnight. He was escorted to his special train by a column of cavalry and Paris police.

SAILS IN 16-FOOT BOAT.

Smallest Ocean Going Vessel in the World Will be Shown at Panama Exhibiton.

Baltimore, August 4.—With provisions enough on board to last a month, the smallest ocean-going vessel in the world, 16 feet in length, left from the foot of South Charles street yesterday morning on a 5,900-mile voyage on the Atlantic and Pacific Oceans to San Francisco.

The captain of this little craft, which has been christened the Defiance, is Frank Wells, 1621 Harford avenue, and his crew consists of Ephriam B. Wilson, of this city, and Pete, a fox terrier puppy.

The little boat's first port of call will be Chesapeake City. There she will enter the Chesapeake and Delaware Canal, up which she will go to Delaware City. Here the Delaware river will be entered, and after Cape May is passed the boat will enter the Atlantic Ocean and follow the coast to New York.

The boat then will head south and the next stop will be made at Norfolk, Va. From there Captain Wells will sail southward, taking inland waterways whenever possible. He expects to cross the Gulf of Mexico and pass through the Panama Canal into the Pacific Ocean.

He expects to arrive at his goal toward the middle of January.

The little boat was built by Captain Wells single-handed. She is completely decked to guard against possible storm which may be encountered on the trip.

NEWS OF THE DAY

By an overwhelming vote, a majority of two-thirds being necessary, the House yesterday suspended its rules and passed the Senate bill placing hundreds of millions of emergency currency at the disposal of the national banks of the country in the face of financial situation because of the great European conflict. The Senate bill removes certain restrictions which might have prevented national banks from availing themselves of $500,000,000 now in the vaults of the Treasury Department. The House amended the bill by going a step farther and authorizing the Secretary of the Treasury to issue more than $500,000,000 if it should become necessary.

A cloudburst centering 10 miles north of Colorado Springs, Col., Sunday night, caused the death of one person and damaged property to the extent of $100,000. Railroad traffic is demoralized and the fertile truck gardening district south of the city is a waste of mud and debris. Colorado Springs suffered heavily from the storm. Two large viaducts in the city were washed out. Damage to the streets is estimated at $60,000. All the bridges in this vicinity were swept away, and the roads are almost impassable.

The council of the labor party in Brussells has decided to abandon the anti-war demonstrations and resolved to issue a manifesto to Socialist workmen in which it is declared that by exercising the legitimate right of self-defense they are fighting against barbarism and for political liberty and democracy. The council also decided that the Socialist party in the chamber should vote the necessary war credits.

At a mass meeting of Socialists, held in Paris yesterday, it was unanimously resolved that they should help defend their country and attempt no reprisals for the killing of Raoul Villain last Friday of Jean Jeaures, the Socialist leader, in the Chamber of Deputies.

News of the attempted assassination of the German crown prince was brought by Lord Winterton, who arrived in London late last night from Germany. He said that when he reached the frontier an official told the passengers that the prince's life had been attempted, and that he was authorized to search the train and examine all passengers.

Lee Estep, 30 years old, colored, known as a "police fighter," was shot and instantly killed yesterday morning at Madison avenue and Preston street, Baltimore, by Patrolman Maurice E. Erdman, of the Northwestern District, after the negro had slashed the policeman's throat. Estep escaped from the officer after wielding a razor on the uniformed man's throat and face. With blood spurting from his wounds, Patrolman Erdman fell to his knees. Leveling his pistol at the negro, Erdman pulled the trigger in quick succession. Each of the five bullets found its mark, and Estep fell dead. He was shot in the head and through the back.

Thirty trans-Atlantic liners, carrying upward of 15,000 passengers and crews to the number of about 12,800 men, were on the high seas yesterday according to figures gathered at the offices of the leading steamship companies in New York. In the event of a declaration of war by England the majority of these vessels would be liable to capture. Six ships operated by the International Merchant Marine Company, flying the American colors, two owned by the Holland-American Line and two Scandinavian-American boats are all that would be immune.

Stripped for action, the British sloop of war Shearwater hurriedly left San Diego, Cal., yesterday afternoon for the west coast of Mexico to join the British sloop Algerine and the Canadian auxiliary cruiser Rainbow. Before he left port Commander Trousdale, of the Shearwater, gave out the startling information that the Japanese cruiser Idzuma was protecting the Algerine and Rainbow from the German cruisers Leipsig and Nuernberg, which on Sunday, off Magdalena Bay, captured the British steamer Queen Maud, bound from New Castle, Australia, for San Francisco, with 6,000 tons of coal.

GERMANY WILL FIGHT BELGIUM

German Soldiers Also Invade Holland and Declare Martial Law.

MAY OPEN THE DYKES

Fifteen Frenchmen Killed by Bombs — Turkey May Aid William — $20,000,000 Gold Captured.

London, August 4.—It is officially announced at the foreign office that Germany has declared war on Belgium. This announcement, following England's declaration that she would stand by Belgium, to protect the integrity of her territory, is accepted as foreshadowing speedy action by England.

The news that Germany had declared war on Belgium was communicated to the British cabinet immediately. It is admitted that England has already demanded what Germany's intentions are concerning Belgium's neutrality. While Germany had been given until midnight to reply, the announcement that she had already acted against the neutral kingdom. That England cannot stand idly by and watch the crushing of Belgium is admitted. Germany in possession of Belgium's seacoast would be an added menace to England, and this alone will greatly influence the government's decision.

London, August 4.—In an official statement issued from the French embassy, it is announced that a German army, proceeding from Cologne, has invaded Belgium at Verviers. The Germans are declared to have seized the railroad and to be advancing in force preceded by armored trains flanked by motorcycle corps.

Brussels, August 4.—According to the burgomaster of Antwerp, German forces have crossed into the province of Limburg, the southeast province of the Netherlands. He has received notification that martial law has been declared in Holland and that the government will open the dykes and flood the country should Germany persist in an invasion.

Brussels, August 4.—The war minister announced in the chamber today that Germany has invaded Belgium. The announcement while expected, created a sensation. It is expected that war legislation will be hurriedly passed.

Brussels, August 4.—In a second note served on the foreign office today Germany demands that Belgium consent to German forces using the railroads to cross to France.

King Albert replied that under no circumstances will Belgium consent to the violation of her neutrality, and announces that his army will oppose Germany's passage. King Albert has already left the capital and gone to the front to assume command of his army.

Paris, August 4.—German aviators killed fifteen soldiers and badly damaged the historic town of Luneville in the department of Meurthe, et Moselle early today. In the early hours of the morning a big Zellepin dirigible sailed out of the fog, and, dropping bombs, demolished part of the embankments of the fortifications and killed fifteen soldiers.

Nish, August 4.—The Austrian forces at Semlin were still held in check today, and have not been able to cross the Danube. The war office declared that fighting at Belgrade had continued unabated, but that the Servians put up such a stubborn defense that every attempt of the Austrians to cross the river failed.

Athens, August 4.—It is officially stated that the Turkish government has ordered the mobilization of its army. The announcement says that the action is taken as a precautionary movement. Despite this there is a general belief that Turkey has an arrangement with Germany whereby she will assail Servia, thus releasing most of the Austrian army to act against Russia.

Berlin, August 4.—German military officers at Stuttgart reported to the war office today their seizure of $20,000,000 in gold, consigned to Russia. The gold was part of a shipment forwarded to Russian banks for use of the Czar's government.

London, August 4.—The French embassy announces that a German cruiser is bombarding the fortified French naval station at Bona, Algeria.

WAR BULLETINS.

German Troop Train Blown Up and 200 Killed.

German troops have invaded Russian Poland and occupied the town of Kalisz.

The German army has violated the neutrality of Belgium, of which Great Britain is protector. German troops occupied the Belgian town of Arlon.

Dowager Empress Maria of Russia, was stopped by the Germans in Berlin on her way to Russia and told to return to London or go to Denmark.

All wire communication between Germany and Belgium has been cut.

The British government has given France assurance that she will protect her northern coast from attack.

Germany's ultimatum to Belgium is being given "grave consideration" by the British cabinet.

German flyers made an attempt to reach Paris, but were driven back by a squadron of French aeroplanes.

England will protect shipping on the Atlantic and the English government has made arrangements for war risks on ships' cargoes.

The mobilization of the British navy is now complete and the navy is on a full war footing.

It is reported that part of the German Baltic fleet is now massed in the North Sea off Jutland, having passed through the Kiel Canal.

The Russian fleet was defeated Sunday in a battle with a squadron of German warships off the Aland Islands. The Russian boats put into the Gulf of Finland.

A Dover-Calais steamer reports that a French cruiser arrested a grain steamer bound for a German port and took her to Calais.

The Servians are advancing on Austrian territory, Austria having withdrawn a portion of her army from Servia in order to hold the Russians in check. Bulgaria is mobilizing and Roumania is expected to follow suit. Turkey also is mobilizing in the hope of furthering her own interests.

Only three active German army corps have been sent to Russia, but they will be augmented by 500,000 reserves as soon as they can be transported there. All details of fighting to date have been suppressed by the war office.

AMERICANS DESPAIR.

Short of Funds, 15,000 Americans Wonder How They Will Get Back Home.

London, August 4.—United States Ambassador Walter H. Page returned to the city yesterday from a week-end visit in the country to find his offices besieged by Americans, who begged him frantically to aid them in securing accommodations on the first liners sailing for the United States.

There are about 15,000 Americans in the city today, and their number is being increased hourly by arrivals from inland towns. Many came to London with troopers, arriving here on freight trains, dirty, unkempt, but glad to have reached their first destination.

Many Americans here are in a bad way financially. They came to Europe with only a limited supply of funds, planning to return to the United States some time this week or next. Their money is almost gone because of the big boost in the last few days in the price of food and lodging.

Accommodations of the American Line boats have been sold out for weeks ahead, and many Americans who have funds in hand, but who want to get back to the United States at once, are offering two and three times the regular prices to those who hold the accommodations. Few of the lucky ones cared to speculate. They fear that the worst must come in England, and they want to get back to America as quickly as possible.

REBELS ADVANCE ON MEXICO CITY

Carranza Orders Movement When Two Armies Merge After Battle.

LOSSES OF FEDERALS

Carvajal Appeals to Villa to Intercede for Peace, as Parley Seems to Have Failed.

Saltillo, Mex., August 4.—An advance on Mexico City of over 70,000 well-armed and equipped Constitutionalist soldiers has been started on orders from General Carranza. The order for the general advance was given by General Carranza after a telegraphic conference with General Alvaro Obregon, in Queretaro. General Obregon reported that the division of the northwest, under his command, and that of the northeast, under General Gonzales, had formed a juncture at Irapuato, where 60,000 men were concentrated. Obregon and Gonzales began at once their march to Pachuca, the first important point toward the capital.

Mexico City, August 4.—It is reported that the Constitutionalists are slowly closing in on the capital from three points. General Jesus Carranza moved southward from Tepeji del Rio, Sunday. General Obregon, with 15,000 men, is at Acambaro, planning an advance through Toluca, and three trainloads of Constitutionalists have moved south from San Luis Potosi toward Queretaro.

Vera Cruz, August 4.—The Constitutionalist authorities yesterday boarded the Hamburg-American Line steamer Antonina, lying alongside the principal wharf at Tampico, as she was about to sail for Havana and Santander, and demanded the surrender of two Mexican passengers, Dr. Villa Neuva and Senor Pesos whom the officials charged with homicide.

The captain of the vessel refused to surrender the men, believing that the charge was merely a pretense for executing them as political offenders. Soldiers thereupon occupied the wharf, and pointing artillery and machine guns at the ship threatened to sink her if she attempted to cast off.

The captain of the Antonina appealed to the German vice consul at Tampico, who called for the assistance of Rear Admiral Henry T. Mayo, in command of the American warships off that port. Rear Admiral Mayo reported the incident to Rear Admiral Charles J. Badger, commander-in-chief of the American naval forces in Mexican waters, who directed Captain Jackson, in command of the monitor Ozark, which was lying in the river near the Antonina, to leave the matter entirely in the hands of the German vice consul, but to enter a protest if the passengers were taken forcibly from the ship.

OUR CAPLES IN DANGER.

Treaty Protection Ends Three Miles From Other Shore.

Washington, August 4.—Although all the cables between the United States and Europe are protected upon the high seas by international treaties and agreements, they are entirely within the jurisdiction of European governments when they reach soundings within the three-mile limit on the other side. Within that limit they may be cut at the pleasure of the government controlling the territory at the terminal.

The fact that many of the cables are privately owned would not prevent their being cut, officials here believe, although international agreements provide severe penalties. In the necessities of war they point out a belligerent probably would cut a cable if it accrued to her advantage and pay the penalty afterward.

Malcolm Neveille Collis, the 15-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Shelton Collis, who reside in Fairfax County, near Lincolnia, died at the Alexandria Hospital last night. He was taken ill on Sunday. The remains were removed to Demaine's undertaking establishment and will be sent to Lincolnia for interment.

Only matters of a routine nature were considered at the meeting of R. E. Lee Camp of Confederate Veterans held last night.

ROADS YIELD TO WILSON.

Will Arbitrate Differences With Engineemen And Firemen.

Washington, August 4.—Managers of 98 Western railroads, urged by President Wilson to place patriotism above property interests, consented yesterday to arbitrate their differences with 55,000 engineemen and firemen and prevented what threatened to be one of the most extensive transportation strikes the country has seen.

The railroad managers consented to present the case for settlement in a way already approved by the employes and the Federal Board of Mediation, to avert what the President characterized as a "national disaster," although they realized and President Wilson pointed out that all the merits of their side could not be taken into consideration.

Chairman Chambers of the Board of Mediation at once began preparations for bringing the dispute to arbitration and the railroad managers and the labor leaders left the city.

NORFOLK WOMAN KILLED.

Mrs. Carolyn O'Keefe Crushed Under Overturned Car.

Baltimore, Md., August 4.—Mrs. Carolyn O'Keefe, of Norfolk, Va., was instantly killed and her husband was badly hurt when their automobile, in which they were touring to Philadelphia, turned turtle near here yesterday.

The O'Keefe automobile was one of four occupied by prominent Norfolk people who had made up a party at Baltimore to tour to Philadelphia and Atlantic City.

O'Keefe was the last to pass through Towson, and as he approached the hill known as Washhouse Trestle Hill, put down the brakes. They refused to work, and before he could take any means to stop the car it had gained high momentum. Noting a high bank at one side he attempted to run the car upward, in the hope that a collision with the car just ahead could be avoided. The speed of the car caused it to turn completely around, and in a flash the big car had turned over and the tragedy enacted.

Mrs. O'Keefe was a Miss Buchanan, of Portsmouth, and was 34 years old. Besides her husband, she is survived by seven children.

STATE RESTS IN THE TRIAL OF MRS. HALL

Accused Woman May Learn Fate by Thursday Afternoon.

BLOW AT DEFENDANT

Statement that She Would Go to "Chair" Except for School Teachers' Evidence Goes in Record.

Louisa, Va., August 4.—Shortly before noon yesterday the Commonwealth rested in the trial of Mrs. Elizabeth A. Hall, charged with murdering her husband in their store at Green Spring Station on the morning of April 15, and the defense proceeded so far in the afternoon with the taking of testimony that the accused may know her fate by Thursday afternoon. Attorney Hill Carter stated that the defense probably would complete its side of the case today by adjournment, when all the character witnesses will have been heard. In that event, by agreement of counsel for both sides, the jury will go to Green Spring on Wednesday to view for itself the scene of the murder and the surrounding premises.

It has not yet been determined whether Mrs. Hall shall go on the stand to tell her story of the killing, though it has been said that she is anxious to repeat, with more elaborate detail, her explanation of the manner in which Victor Hall met his death. In taking the stand, however, she will be at the mercy of the prosecution and Commonwealth's Attorney W. C. Bibb and Attorney M. J. Fulton, who is assisting in the prosecution, will be unsparing in their demand upon her to explain away the alleged discrepancies in her previous statements. There has been no indication of a compromise and a change in Mrs. Hall's plea of not guilty. She is determined to fight for her liberty, and Attorney R. Lindsay Gordon, of her counsel, is equally as determined that his client shall be cleared of the suspicion which now attaches to her name.

Some comfort came to Mrs. Hall yesterday when A. O. Wood, father of Miss Elsie Wood, and J. W. Flannagan testified in her behalf that Charles Johnston had told them that he knew nothing about the case, and did not know whether Victor Hall's pistol was loaded or not at the time he looked at the weapon. Mr. Wood swore that Johnston told him that he had been brought into court "on the biggest fool errand and by the biggest fool there was, and that he was making the easiest money he ever had made. Mr. Flannagan swore that Johnston told him that he did not know a d——d thing about the case. As an offset to this, Johnston had previously testified that he never had mentioned being paid for his services as a witness, and swore that he had not received any money.

As a further offset to the evidence of Mr. Wood and Mr. Flannagan, it is said that the prosecution may put on in rebuttal witnesses who will swear that Mr. Wood threatened Johnston, and forced him to admit that he had told two tales about his examination of the pistol.

When he was asked why he had become so much interested in the case, Mr. Wood replied that he had become concerned because an attempt had been made to prove his daughter a liar. Miss Wood has testified that she fired Victor Hall's pistol at a railroad mile-post a month or six weeks before the murder. Johnston swore that he examined the revolver thoroughly nine days before the murder and found every chamber loaded. The veracity of the two will be in question before the jury.

The testimony of W. J. Roberts, who has self-confessedly interested himself in Mrs. Hall since the murder, and who testified in her behalf today, was not regarded as decisive by the prosecution. He went upon the stand as an expert in the use of firearms, and said that he had fired a .38-calibre revolver at an old field

GOLD SHIP AT BAR HARBOR.

North German Liner Kronprinzessin Cecilie Enters Place Out of Fog.

Bar Harbor, Me., August 4.—The North German Lloyd treasure ship, the Kronprinzessin Cecilie, steamed out of the fog into this harbor early today.

She had been variously reported as having safely reached a German port and having been intercepted by the British cruisers on the other side. An hour after his arrival, Captain Polock came ashore and immediately got in touch with the officials of the line in New York.

He was ordered to remain at Bar Harbor. The movements of the Kronprinzessin since leaving New York have been entirely controlled by orders from Germany. Captain Pollock refused to state where the treasure ship had been since she left port.

Whether the passengers on the big liner are to be landed here has not yet been decided. A number of them are understood to have asked to be taken off immedately.

The exact value of the gold on the liner, with the firms shipping it, according to the liner's manifest, is as follows: For Paris, Goldman, Sacks & Co., $1,076,634.49; Heidelbach, Ickelheimer & Co., $1,584,000; National City Bank, $2,104,254.34. For London, Guaranty Trust Company, $4,942,937.64; National City Bank, $1,061,710.8. Total, $10,769,545.36.

WILL HOLD A CARNIVAL

Alexandria Firemen Perfect Plans for Interesting Entertainment in September.

A meeting of committees representing the three volunteer fire companies of Alexandria, was held last night at the house of the Relief Truck Company and arrangements made for the holding of a carnival to replenish the treasuries of the three companies.

A contract was signed with the John J. Jones Exposition Shows for a week, commencing September 7th.

The carnival will be held on the Baggett lot, King street, extended.

The following committee was named to have charge of the arrangements: Kenneth W. Ogden, of the Reliance Co., chairman; Elmer J. McIntosh, of the Columbia Co., secretary; and John D. Normoyle, of the Relief Co., treasurer. Each company will also name five members to serve on the general committee.

MINER INVENTS AIRSHIP.

Glendinning Says His Machine Will Sail Around the World.

Sensational developments are promised in the science of aerial navigation and by such a supposedly unscientific person as a coal miner at that. He hails from the northern county of Newfoundland, England, his name is William Glendinning.

He has explained his ideas to some of the principals of the great armament firm of Sir W. G. Armstrong, Whitworth & Company, and they were so impressed that the company will develop his invention.

He declares that a machine built from his designs, even though it weighed more than 13 tons, could sail around the world without the slightest risk of mishap, and that it could remain aloft for five days without requiring renewal of supplies.

Glendinning has spent most of his life in the study of areonautics, and he is the only working miner who has been elected a member of the Balloon Society of Great Britain.

RESIDENTS OF COUNTY MEET.

Protest Against Proposed Route of New Highway.

A meeting of the residents of Alexandria county, residing in the sub-divisions of Rosemont, Braddock Heights and Mt. Ida, was held in the rooms of the Chamber of Commerce here last night for the purpose of protesting against the route selected by the Department of Agriculture of the United States government for the Mount Vernon Boulevard, between Alexandria and Washington. George Washington Lewis, of Rosemont, acted as chairman, and Wallace Lindsey, of Braddock, as secretary.

The following committee was named to confer with Logan W. Page, United States Commissioner of Roads, and urge that the route be changed so as to enter Alexandria by King street extended, instead of by north Washington street: C. A. Strauss, R. D. Woolf, M. Niven, J. S. Groves, W. E. Swan, E. H. Kemper, Robert Elliott, Alexander Suter, H. J. Warthan and Wallace Lindsey.

This committee will have a conference with Mr. Page tomorrow morning at his office in Washington and present a petition signed by many property owners of Alexandria county asking that the route be changed. On motion of Edward H. Kemper it was also decided to employ legal council for the purpose of ascertaining what steps could be taken to stop the building of the road. It was explained by Mr. Kemper that he is not opposed to road improvements but that he desired to see the money expended where the most good could be accomplished. Should it be stopped, he explained, a route would be determined upon afterwards. Those present volunteered to pay their pro-rata of the cost incident to any litigation that might be incurred.

Worker Stabs Strikers.

Trenton, August 4.—George Hunt, a machinist of Philadelphia, sent two men to the hospital here yesterday evening when, with a penknife, he defended himself from an attack made upon him by union machinists who are on strike. Hunt was accused of being a strike-breaker, because he is employed at the McFarland foundry, where the union men are out.

REDUCING THE ILLITERATE.

School Superintendents in State Aroused to Work.

Richmond, August 4.—"The aroused interest of the different division superintendents of schools throughout the State, in the rapid advancement now being made in the public school educational work in Virginia, was plainly shown at the recent convention held in Lynchburg," declared State Superintendent of Public Instruction R. C. Stearn. In speaking of the work of his department.

"I am very much encouraged at the outlook, and the number of illiterate children in the State is rapidly being reduced," said Mr. Stearnes.

At the recent meeting of the superintendents only eight who were not attending one of the summer schools, were absent. Of these eight, five had sickness in their family and one a death, leaving only two school superintendents in the entire State who were not present either at one of the summer schools or at the convention.

How to spend the $200,000 appropriated by the last legislature for the promotion of the two-room schools, was the principal topic of discussion by the superintendents, and all of them gave encouraging reports of the work in progress in their districts.

Taking up the question of how best to reach the uneducated mass of children and how to draw them into the schools already in existence, the superintendents found the most plausible answer to be that the teachers of the State should go into the homes of Virginia and urge upon parents the importance of sending their children to school. That teachers should be missionaries as well as educators was the sense of the convention.

Taking one county at the time the convention would discuss the number of miles which lay between schools, the demand for other schools in the same district, and the number of children already in attendance at the schools already established. Thus each superintendent received the advice of his co-workers as how best to meet his local conditions.

Altogether an air of confidence seemed to pervade the convention and all of the superintendents are encouraged at the outlook. All agreed that never before has Virginia made such rapid progress along educational lines as she has been making during the past few years. They are unanimous in the belief that even this rapid progress will be exceeded in the next few years.

ITALY WILL KEEP OUT.

Formally Announces Neutrality—Fears Fleets of Triple Entente. Pope Asks Prayer.

Rome, August 4.—Italy today formally proclaimed her neutrality.

In a semi-official statement published here it was said.

"The Italian Cabinet has decided that while some of the European powers are at war. Italy is at peace with all the belligerents. Consequently the citizens and subjects of the Kingdom of Italy are obliged to observe the duty of neutrality."

The summoning to the colors is announced of the first category of the 1889 and 1890 classes of the Italian army who have to present themselves on August 8. The naval reserves of the same classes also were called out, while all artisans, stokers and electricians were warned to be ready for mobilization.

The head of the Italian General Staff conferred with the leading generals and admirals of the Italian army and fleet as to the Italian plan of campaign in case Italy should be drawn into the European war.

It was pointed out in authoritative circles here that Italy's situation would be a critical one if the three powers of the Triple Alliance were brought face to face with those of the Triple Entente. The combined Anglo-French fleet, it was argued, would then have at its mercy the coasts of the Mediterranean and Ionian Seas, and it was thought that England might seize Sardinia, as she threatened to do in 1882 when Italy remonstrated with the French invasion of Tunis.

The Pope addressed an exhortation to all the Catholics of the world asking them to lift their souls to God Christ, who alone was able to aid. He called on the clergy to offer public prayers.

OPEN DOOR TO SHIPS.

House Passes Bill Empowering the President to Admit Foreign Ships to Registry.

Washington, August 4.—Without opposition the House Marine Committee favorably reported yesterday a bill empowering the President to suspend certain inhibitions against bringing foreign ships under American register and thus prevent paralysis of trans-Atlantic shipping.

The bill was passed in the House without a roll call, and was taken at once to the Senate, where it will be acted upon today.

The bill amends the merchant marine laws respecting foreign ships coming into American registry, so that a bona fide invitation can be issued to the merchant marine of the world to hoist the American flag and carry the two billions of American trans-Atlantic commerce under laws which will meet the neutrality conventions of the various hostile nations.

Death of Minister.

Petersburg, Va. August 4.—A telegram was received yesterday announcing the death at his home in Gordonsville of the Rev. R. G. EXHIBIT OF VIRGINIA SCHOOLS.

Panama-Pacific Exposition to Be Occasion for Demonstrating Progress.

Richmond, August 4.—The school authorities of Virginia have decided to make a first-class exhibit at the San Francisco Exposition. This exhibit will cover every phase of progressive school work, and will accentuate especially those lines peculiar to Virginia.

Domestic science and farm demonstration work will be given due prominence, as well as the results of such policies as consolidation and transportation. The domestic science work of the colored schools will also be given especial attention. It is understood that the exposition authorities will deal very generously with Virginia as to space, and it is the earnest desire of the Department of Public Instruction that the State's exhibit shall do full justice to the splendid progress made in the Old Dominion during the past decade. Superintendent R. C. Stearnes has appointed J. W. Everett, editor of the Virginia Journal of Education, to prepare the State's exhibit.

JEWS TO AID FRANCE.

Two Thousand Band Together to Fight for That Country.

Paris, August 4.—Headed by a banner upon which was inscribed the words "Jews Come to the Aid of France," 2,000 Jews marched through the principal streets of Paris yesterday singing the Marseillaise. It was one of the most imposing processions seen since Paris went war mad.

The demonstration was the result of a call of the Hebrew Association of Paris summoning all Jews of all nations at present friendly to France to join in a manifestation supporting the country.

The legend pledging the loyalty of the Hebrew band was written both in French and Hebrew. French, English, Russian and Belgian flags were carried in the procession. As the column proceeded through the streets it was cheered by the populace.

WAR CLOUD HANGS LOW.

The European war cloud is more densely packed than ever, according to dispatches received today. If there is any silver lining the most powerful telescope cannot discern it at present.

While it is generally admitted France forced war on Prussia in 1870, it must be seen that in the year 1914 Germany has turned the tables and formally announced hostilities against a nation that preferred peace. Almost as soon as the declaration of war left Berlin the Kaiser's troops began an attack on the French. Twentieth century tactics are in evidence—war is being waged on earth and in the air. Fifteen Frenchmen have been killed by aerial bombs.

No news has been received from London today—that is, nothing to indicate what steps King George will take in this great emergency. This is ominous, and shows the strict censorship that is being exercised over everything emanating from the British Foreign Office.

There is no telling what a day will bring forth, and no one would be surprised to hear of a terrible naval encounter in the North Sea between English and German ships.

The war fever is spreading rapidly. Turkey, just recuperating after a severe struggle to retain her foothold in Europe, is mobilizing. It is believed the Moslems intend to come to the aid of Germany.

ENGLAND AND GERMANY.

England and Germany have been shaking their fists at each other for a long time. When Napoleon the First escaped from Elba and the peace of Europe was again menaced by the Corsican, the Anglo-Saxon and the Teuton were allies and fought side by side in order to give the Corsican his coup de grace. Many years have elapsed since those stirring days, and mutual jealousy has gradually embittered these two great nations.

The illustrious Queen Victoria left this world's scenes early in this century. She was the grandmother of the present Kaiser, and so long as she remained upon this mundane sphere, there was but little likelihood of any serious breach between England and Germany.

After her decease, however, Germany entered into a rivalry with England for naval supremacy, and the notes of the old air, "Brittannia Rules the Sea," has kept William in a restless humor. He has dreamed that the German army is superior to any in Europe, but all this has signified nothing so long as England could maintain a navy twice the size as that of the fatherland.

The old Emperor, grandfather of the present Kaiser, and his statesman, Count Bismarck, have long since finished their course. The latter, with the King, accomplished much in forming the North German Federation and raising Prussia to her present pinnacle. As soon as young William became King he began to make the iron chancellor's position unbearable, and Bismarck was eventually, in order to preserve his self-respect, compelled to cut loose from the young sovereign.

The policies of the greatest statesman of this age were ruthlessly cast aside and the young ruler took the wheel of State himself.

Germany, by her rigid military laws, has caused the expatriation of thousands of her best people. The country has for a long time been an armed camp, and socialism has flourished in consequence.

Nebuchadnezzar in his pride said: "Is not this great Babylon which I have builded?" William, in moving through Berlin, could only realize that others had builded the nation over which he presides.

There are no Delphic oracles to consult as to the outcome of this titanic struggle which William has heedlessly precipitated, and we can only await the result with patience.

A dispatch from London suggests that a conference may be held in that city to form a coalition against the aggressive William. He may be destined to meet a fate similar to another chronic disturber of the peace who pined away in far-off St. Helena.

TO SEND $3,500,000 GOLD.

New York Banker Wants a Warship to Carry Coin to Relief of Americans Abroad.

New York, August 4.—Use of a United States warship to carry to Europe $3,500,000 in gold for the relief of stranded American tourists was proposed by New York bankers yesterday, and Benjamin Strong, Jr., president of the Bankers' Trust Company, left for Washington to make the suggestion to President Wilson. The gold is ready.

It was withdrawn from the Subtreasury today and is packed in kegs in vaults of the trust company. All that is needed is the sanction of President Wilson.

The sponsors of the plan admitted that it was an unprecedented one, but said the situation required heroic measures. To ship the gold on a liner would be impracticable at this time. No insurance company could be found to write a policy on such a shipment, which would be liable to seizure by European warships. But it was felt that if it were in the strong room of a swift American armored cruiser it would be entirely safe, however, is any foreign warships might be encountered on the way.

Wall street did not stop to consider whether such a course would be in accordance with international usage in time of war. The opinion expressed in the street was that, whatever the rules of war, no foreign power would venture to halt an American cruiser, especially when on an errand of mercy. In any event, it was felt that some such action should be taken for the relief of Americans who are out of money and unable to cash their letters of credit, and no other plan which offered even a fair chance of sending the gold safely to England could be devised.

Should this proposal meet with objection, Mr. Strong, it was understood, will suggest to the President that the gold be placed on an American steamship and that a warship be sent with it to insure its safe passage.

WARSHIPS OFF NOVA SCOTIA.

German Cruisers May be After Coal or French Vessel.

Sydney, N. S., August 4.—Two German cruisers were sighted Sunday off St. Pierre, Miquelon. It is believed that they are from Mexican or West Indian waters. The object of their presence in these waters could not be learned. One explanation of their presence was that they were in quest of coal for a transatlantic voyage.

Captain Postin, in charge of the guard at the cable station at Lloyd Cove, was notified by cable from Newfoundland of the presence of the German war vessels and requested that shipping be notified of the fact.

The French cruiser Friant is said to be near St. Pierre and it was not considered improbable here that the German cruisers are watching that vessel.

That the cruisers were under orders to watch this port and the entrance of the St. Lawrence river was also advanced as a reason for their visit.

MAYBE it is an old fashioned idea this notion of putting all the value possible into the car itself—and as little as possible into overhead expense—

But it has given the Paige a positively dominant position among cars of medium price—

Ample capital for operating purposes—no bonded indebtedness—no excessive capitalization—no heavy overhead of any kind to be paid for.

Just a full dollar of car value for every dollar of the selling price.

Is it any wonder that the Paige is going to be oversold again this year in spite of increased production?

D. D. D. In Hospitals; Standard Skin Cure

How many hospital patients, suffering the frightful itch, the raw scorching pain of skin disease, have been soothed to sleep by a soothing fluid washed in by the nurse's hands?

That fluid is the famous D. D. D. prescription for eczema.

THE SUPERVISING NURSE of one of our prominent Catholic institutions (name of nurse and institute on application), writes regarding a patient, "The disease had eaten her eyebrows away. Her nose and lips had become disfigured. Since the use of D. D. D. her eyebrows are growing, her nose and face have assumed their natural expression."

How many eczema sufferers are paying their doctors for regular treatment and are being treated with this same soothing, healing fluid?

DR. GEO. T. RICHARDSON frankly writes "D. D. D. is superior to anything I have ever found. Soft and soothing, yet a powerful agent."

To do the work, D. D. D. Prescription must be applied according to directions given in the pamphlet around every bottle. Follow these directions—and see!

And it certainly takes away the itch at once—the moment the liquid is applied. The skin is soothed—calmed—so thoroughly refreshed—delightfully cooled.

All druggists of standing have the famous specific as well as the efficient D. D. D. Skin Soap.

But we are so confident of the merits of this prescription that we will refund the purchase price of the first full size bottle if it fails to reach your case. You alone are to judge.

Why Suffer from Rheumatism?
When relief from rheumatic pains may be had at so small a cost it is surprising that anyone should fail to avail himself of it. Joseph Copparelli, Canastota, N. Y., suffered intensely with pains due to rheumatism in his limbs for a long time A friend told him about Chamberlain's Liniment. One application relieved him wonderfully, and a few days' treatment effected a cure. Many others have found quick relief by applying this liniment. For sale by all dealers.

SHOT BY NEGROES.

Two White Men Victim of Murderous Attack.

Elizabeth City, N. C., August 4.—Tom Evans, a young white man, was shot in the abdomen and seriously wounded and a companion named Joe Self was shot in the arm Saturday night, by James Eason, colored, and a female companion named Rodgers, colored.

Messrs. Evans and Self, with several companions, were walking on the railroad track, when they met Eason and his companion. Both of the negroes were armed and opened fire upon the white men without a word of warning, declaring that they had the right of way, which had not been contested by the white men. Eason shot Mr. Self in the arm and fled, the negro woman shot Mr. Evans in the abdomen and attempted to flee, but was caught.

The negro man was arrested an hour later at the home of the girl's mother, Fannie Rodgers, and both placed in jail.

Mr. Evans was taken to a hospital in Norfolk to receive treatment. His condition is considered very serious and his life is despaired of.

WAR PAINT ON LLOYD LINER.

New York, August 4.—The North German Lloyd liner Kronprinz Wilhelm was ordered to proceed last night to Bremen from this port. Her bunkers and holds have been filled with coal. No passengers were allowed to sail. The steamer is one of the fastest of the trans-Atlantic liners.

Uusually of a brownish black color the ship has had her superstructure painted gray. As soon as she gets beyond the three-mile limit, it is said, her hull also will be painted gray.

Officials of the North German Lloyd said they did not know for what purpose the ship had been ordered to return.

Notwithstanding the announced plans for the Kronprinz Wilhelm guesses were hazarded that her real object might be to coal one of the German cruisers which recently left West Indian waters and which rumors say are now somewhere off this coast.

Twenty thousand members of the Fraternal Order of Eagles are in Kansas City for the annual convention of the order, which will last six days. They represent a membership of more than 400,000, distributed in 2,022 lodges in the United States, Canada, Mexico, Philippine Islands, and Alaska. The biggest feature will be a parade on Thursday.

AERIAL WARFARE.

Attack on Paris by Germans Yesterday Frustrated.

Paris, August 4.—The first attempted aerial attack on Paris was frustrated yesterday when four German military aeroplanes crossed the frontier flying in the direction of this capital and were driven back by the Rheims air squadron.

Air scouts reported the oncoming planes shortly after daybreak. The warning was flashed by wireless to the remainder of the corps in the tented hangars in Rheims. Immediately the remainder of the French corps took the air, their machines laden with contact bombs and explosive shell high-power rifles.

With the first flutter of the French flock of flying machines the German invaders swung around and returned across the border with the French aviators sought altitude to give them advantage in the impending battle of the air. This maneuver gave the Germans an advantage in their straight-away flight and they escaped.

Meanwhile at Eiffel Tower the military wireless operator had caught the warning out of the air and quick-firing guns immediately were made ready to repel aerial invaders.

A danger which the French government had taken every measure to ward off, if possible is a raid by Zeppelin airships.

Leaving their stations on the frontier at nightfall the Zeppelin leviathans of the air could be over Paris witnin a few hours, drop bombs on the capital and return to Germany.

Last night between Paris and the frontier the sky is a literal network of high power lights from which no aerial invader can escape undetected. The great beams from the searchlights are combing the sky from a dozen different stations between here and Rheims.

Immediately a Zeppelin is sighted, military airmen will be sent up to drop special projectiles on them. If this has no effect the airmen's orders are to ram the airship. See a how it ends it means certain death to the airmen but each of the corps accepted the order with a smile.

Aeroplanes stationed in the five aerodromes near Paris have been specially constructed for this work. The pilots include Legoud and Vedines, widely known for their daring.

The German Emperor has sent orders to the German Ambassador in Paris to demand his passports.

Secretary of State Bryan announced yesterday that the United States government had acceded to the formal requests of the governments of Germany and Austria for American diplomatic and consular representatives to take charge of the interests of those governments in countries with which Germany and Austria are at war.

FAMINE MAY ACCOMPANY WAR

Dismal Conditions Would Follow Protracted Hostilities.

Should a general European war come, one phase will be a war of foods. Already the famine scare has seized parts of Germany and England, and it would not be surprising if it soon developed into a panic. France, too, remembering the days of 1870, when meat sold at $20 a pound, is feeling tremors, and President Poincare has signed decrees prohibiting the exportation of grains and foodstuffs.

In many cities food prices have already been trebled. Even in the nations not implicated in the war there will be great advances, and they will be dependent mainly on their own resources. This country too, will feel the pressure, though it ought not to be serious.

To England and Germany the problem is of most momentous concern, for these two nations are dependent on the outside for most of their sustenance. "Starvation, not invasion, is the danger of the country," declared A. J. Balfour several years ago in arguing against the declaration of London. The declaration will prevent America from contributing prominently to the relief of the war-ridden nations.

London, with its environs, has a population of 9,000,000 which receives its sustenance through the London markets and produces no food at all.

If London should be besieged as was Paris in 1871 famine would set in immediately. This mighty swarm of people consumes each day 5,000,000 loaves of bread, 4,000 tons of potatoes, 350,000 gallons of milk, nearly 1,000,000 cabbages, and in season 2,000,000 pecks of peas and beans.

Congress has voted $250,000 for relief, protection and transportation of Americans now in Europe. Bankers and Cabinet members have outlined plans to ship funds to marooned Americans. Plans are being prepared for American vessels being sent abroad to convey Americans home.

Information for all Lung Sufferers

Would you like to know more about a remedy for Lung Trouble which has brought about many complete recoveries? The makers of Eckman's Alterative are in receipt of many really wonderful reports, and will be pleased to forward to you copies of original letters and also booklet on diet and proper care needed in recovering health. Investigate this case:—

1619 Susquehanna Ave., Phila., Pa.

"My Dear Sir: For two years I was afflicted with hemorrhages of the lungs, and in February of 1902 I was taken with a severe attack of pneumonia. When I recovered sufficiently to walk about the house I was left with a frightful hacking cough, which no medicine I had taken could alleviate. It was at this time, March, 1902, that I started taking Eckman's Alterative. In a short time my cough was gone and I was pronounced well. I cannot speak too highly for the good it has done."

Eckman's Alterative has been proven by many years' test to be most efficacious for severe Throat and Lung Affections, Bronchitis, Bronchial Asthma, Stubborn Colds and in upbuilding the system. Contains no narcotics, poisons or habit-forming drugs. Ask for booklet telling of recoveries, and write to Eckman Laboratory, Philadelphia, Pa., for evidence. For sale by all leading druggists

ARABIAN JUSTICE.

A Desert Problem the Cadi Had No Trouble In Solving.

Two Arabs stopped at an oasis to have luncheon. One had three dates, and the other had five, which they were to eat together. Presently a stranger came up and asked permission to share their meal, which they cheerfully granted. After all had eaten the stranger thanked them for the food they had given him, left eight ducats and rode away.

The Arab who had the three dates said, "Here is, 8 ducats for eight dates—1 ducat for each date; therefore three ducats are mine." But the other Arab argued differently and contended that he should have seven ducats and the first man one. The case was referred to the cadi of the nearest town, who upheld the second man's contention. This is the way he reached his decision:

The three men divided eight dates. There were two and two-thirds for each, or eight-thirds. The first Arab had three dates, so he contributed nine-thirds to the whole, but he ate eight-thirds himself, so he gave only one-third of a date to the stranger. The second Arab contributed five dates, or fifteen-thirds; he ate eight-thirds himself and gave seven-thirds to the stranger.

So reasoned the cadi, and he gave the first Arab 1 ducat and the second 7 ducats.—Youth's Companion.

TWO CROPS AT ONCE.

Tree Agriculture an Old Story on the Island of Majorca.

Approximately nine-tenths of the arable area of Majorca, one of the Spanish islands in the Mediterranean, is planted out to crop yielding trees. That makes one story agriculture. Then beneath the trees grain is grown. That makes the second story, which may properly be likened to the cyclone cellar.

For miles and miles in every direction that beautiful island is covered with continuous orchards of almonds, olives, figs and carobs, with occasional grafted oak trees, the sweet acorns of which are prized as highly as the chestnut.

This tree agriculture is nothing new, for many of these orchards are of unknown age, and some of them give evidence of having seen generations of men rise, dig awhile and die before Columbus sailed past on his way from Genoa to Gibraltar, and throughout all the years that the white man has striven in America these same old olive and carob trees have been standing there, handing down their harvests of fruit and beans to the men who raised other crops at their feet—crops of wheat, oats, barley, beans and peas.—From "Two Story Farming," by J. Russell Smith, in Century.

Make Appearances Count.

A good appearance is always an entering wedge when a man seeks an interview, but all the clothes in a king's wardrobe won't sell a bill of goods. It takes human intelligence to do that. Vanity sometimes leads a fellow to bedeck his person like a five storied wedding cake, and some men do it, I suppose, because they believe in the foolish aphorism that "clothes make the man." It's the other way. Man makes the clothes, and just as often clothes unmake the man. Fine feathers may make fine birds, fine hats or fine dusters, but the best that fine clothes ever did was to make fine looking men. No doctor ever prescribes for himself, and by the same token you'll notice that the men who own the clothes foundries don't wear their own styles—not publicly, at any rate.—Maurice Switzer in Leslie's.

Sawing the Wood.

It was only on rare occasions that Mrs. Cutler, a kind faced old lady, accepted invitations to dine out. Upon repeated invitations of her friends, the Joslins, however, she consented to attend a little informal dinner they were giving, accompanied by her daughter.

Unfortunately Mrs. Cutler was quite deaf and consequently could not enter into the general conversation. She was engaged in cutting a piece of steak when her daughter turned to her and said:

"Mother, dear, why are you so quiet?"

"I'm all right," responded mother, with a sunny smile. "While you talk, Mabel, I say nothing and saw wood."—Buffalo Express.

Fully Explained.

The colored sexton of a wealthy church had a very stylish mulatto wife. Finding his domestic income not quite equal to his expenses, he decided to apply for an increase in salary. So he wrote a letter to the committee in charge with this explanation at the close: "It's mighty hard to keep a sealskin wife on a muskrat salary."—New York Sun.

Decided by Salt.

Legal disputes in Borneo are decided in a curious manner. The two litigants are each given a lump of salt of the same size to drop simultaneously into water. The one whose lump first dissolves is deemed to be in the wrong and loses his case.

NEAR DEATH BY SMOTHERING

But Husband, With Aid of Cardui Effects Her Deliverance.

Draper, N C.—Mrs. Helen Dalton, of this place, says: "I suffered for years with pains in my left side, and would often almost smother to death.

Medicines patched me up for awhile but then I would get worse again. Finally, my husband decided he wanted me to try Cardui, the woman's tonic, so he bought me a bottle and I began using it. It did me more good than all the medicines I had taken.

I have induced many of my friends to try Cardui, and they all say they have been benefited by its use. There never has been, and never will be, a medicine to compare with Cardui. I believe it is a good medicine for all womanly troubles."

For over 50 years, Cardui has been relieving woman's sufferings and building weak women up to health and strength.

If you are a woman, give it a fair trial. It should surely help you, as it has a million others.

IT IS EASIER TO SAVE THE HAIR YOU HAVE

Than to Grow New

The tendency to put off until tomorrow what we should do today accounts for most of the bald heads we see in the front row.

Newbro's Herpicide stops falling hair and prevents baldness. The dandruff is destroyed by its use and a condition of health maintained in the hair and scalp.

Nearly everyone has hair troubles of some description which Herpicide will correct. Don't wait until it is too late.

It is conceded to be the standard hair remedy and is recommended and applied by all the best hair dressers and barbers.

Newbro's Herpicide in 50c and $1.00 sizes is guaranteed to do all that is claimed. If you are not satisfied your money will be refunded.

The Case of L. L. Cantelou. . .

The case of L. L. Cantelou, Clarendon, Texas, is similar to that of many others who have used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. He says, "After trying a doctor for several months, and using different kinds of medicine for my wife who had been troubled with severe bowel complaint for several months, I bought a 25c bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. After using the second bottle she was entirely cured." For sale by all dealers.

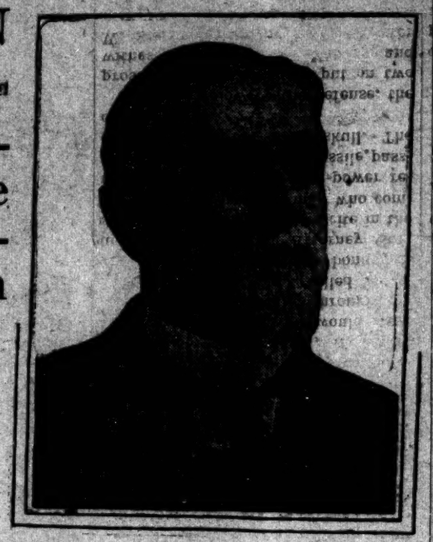
Prohibition Entering Wedge For Other Drastic Reforms

SAYS JUDGE GEO. L. CHRISTIAN

Prominent Lawyer, Jurist and Churchman Declares Prohibition Spirit the Same That Animated Old Abolitionists Which Laid Foundation For Civil War.

Replies To Criticisms of His Advocaay of Local Option.



Judge George L. Christian.

Richmond, July 31.—In a stinging reply to the criticisms which have been leveled against him because of his advocacy of the principles declared by the Virginia Association for Local Self - Government, Judge George L. Christian today publicly re-affirmed his conviction that Virginia is menaced with a real curse in the threatened adoption of the State-wide law.

The statement, issued in the form of an open letter to the people of Virginia, reviews with pride his association with a patriotic and high-minded company of citizens dedicated to the purpose of mantaining unharmed the basic principles of local self-government, which prohibition threatens to destroy, and summarizes his creed in these words:

"I believe and always have believed in Local Option. I am a Democrat and I have always voted the Democratic ticket, and I thoroughly believe in the Democratic principle of local self-government, and hence, that each and every county and city in the State has the right and should enjoy the privilege of determining for itself the policy to be pursued in that community on this important question.

"I believe, too, in the three aphorisms as enunciated by Mr. Jefferson:

"First, that the State has no right to control or attempt to control the private opinions of the individual.

"Second, that compulsion makes hypocrites and not converts.

"Third, that error needs the support of the State, but that truth will stand alone without such support."

"I am, and have been all my life, a citizen of Virgina," says Judge Christian in his opening words, "and both in war and in peace I have tried to guard and defend what I believe to be the highest and best interests of my mother State, even to the shedding of blood in her behalf. I am neither an office holder nor an office-seeker, and my highest and only ambition is to do what I believe will best promote and preserve the true interests of my people.

"I have been very reluctant to do what some may deem a parading of myself before the public, and I have only consented to do this because I have been persuaded that some good may be accomplished by so doing. I have resided in Richmond for more than half a century, and have been honored by her people by positions of both trust and confidence, the duties of which positions I have tried to discharge satisfactorily and with fidelity. I have yet to take my first drink in a bar room in Richmond, and when on the bench I spared no effort to enforce the Sunday and other laws against the saloon keepers rigidly and fearlessly. I have never affiliated with this class or been considered by them an ally in any way. It is my opinion, however, that when saloon keepers have been duly licensed by the State and obey the laws of the land, they have the same rights to the protection and enjoyment of their business property and the other rights of citizenship that other citizens have.

"I believe from the bottom of my heart that Virginia is menaced with a real curse of the so-called prohibition laws involved in the impending canvass, and that it is the duty of every citizen to try to avert that calamity if it is possible to do so.

"I recognize that there are many who honestly differ with me on this very important question, but I cannot believe that the great body of the people of Virginia, who are always reasonable and conservative, have ever thought and informed themselves on this matter as they ought to do; and I further believe that when they have thought and been properly informed, they will not be misled, and thereby inflict, as I believe, a great injury on their State and people."

Judge Christian refers with charity to the "ugly, untrue, unjust and unpleasant" things that prohibitionists have said about his championship of the Local Self-Government Association and the principles for which it stands, and declares his purpose to refrain from imitating the authors of these slanders by a descent to the use of recrimination.

"I have been on elder in the Presbyterian Church for many years and I have held and still hold, other offices of trust, and, I hope, usefulness in that church, and while I fully realize my unworthiness as a steward of the Master, I have knowingly done nothing to disgrace or degrade my 'high calling;' and I am fully convinced that my present position in this canvass is in no wise inconsistent with my obligations and duties to my church, and I know this is the opinion of others far more worthy and capable of judging than I am."

Judge Christian devotes several illuminating paragraphs to the disastrous results of prohibition in Georgia, Alabama, Maine, Kansas and other States that have had experience with the law, and concludes with this striking statement:

"I am firmly convinced that 'Local Option' is the best method of dealing with it in the country, and wherever there is a public sentiment which will insure the enforcement of the laws pertaining to liquor.

'In the cities, I believe that the only safe and best way is the imposition of high license, thus placing the business in the hands of the most responsible dealers, who, co-operating with the police force, will insure the proper enforcement of the law. This last is the method now existing in this city, and I doubt very much if it can be improved on.

ENTERING WEDGE TO OTHER CRUSADES.

"Finally, I regard this Prohibition propaganda as the entering wedge to other so-called reforms in other directions, such as the threatened crusade against the use of tobacco. It is, in my opinion, the same spirit which animated the old abolitionists who laid the foundation for the late war between the North and South, and who, according to a writer of that day, 'measured the duties and obligations of others by their own consciences.' I have been, am now, and always will be, opposed to any such spirit and methods.

"I am glad to see from the newspapers that the great State of Texas has had the wisdom to reject even the proposition to submit these so-called Prohibition laws to the voters and I cannot bring myself to believe that Virginia will be less wise and conservative when her people are made acquainted with the experiments and conditions in other States."

pine with varying effect. The defence is attempting to prove that a weapon of such calibre, if placed close against the head, would have sent the bullet crashing through the skull. The bullet which killed Victor Hall, lodged against the bone just under the left eye. Attorney Gordon asked to be allowed to cite in the evidence the case of a man who committed suicide with a high-power revolver and in which the missile passed through and out of the skull. The court refused.

As a final blow to the defense, the prosecution this morning put on two witnesses—Mrs. L. F. Yancey and W. Sterling Hall, brother of Victor—to swear that Mrs. Hall told them that she reckoned she would go to the chair if the evidence of the two school teachers didn't save her. Neither was shaken on cross-examination.
